

One of the best things a high school student can do when trying to decide on a college is to visit the college campus. Most universities have “preview days” of some sort in the fall and also in the spring, most of which are on Saturdays. Seniors should plan a fall visit if they haven’t done so prior to their senior year. Check in the office for a form to receive one absence exemption per semester for a campus visit.

General College Planning	College Searches
www.applytexas.org : common application	www.bestcollegepicks.com : compare colleges www.adventuresineducation.org	www.campustours.com : virtual campus tours www.collegeboard.com	www.collegequest.com : college search www.collegebound.net	www.nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cool : college search www.collegenet.com	www.texasmentor.org : private college search www.petersons.com	www.utexas.edu/world/univ : links to college homepages throughout the U.S.
www.review.com : Princeton Review	www.50states.com/college/texas.htm listing of universities in Texas Perspective College Athletes www.ncaaclearinghouse.net	www.50states.com/cc/texas.htm listing of community colleges in Texas